TAFT PARTY HAS A TIME.

Alice Roosevelt Will Call on Chinese Empress.

Cholera Has Made Appearance in Manila.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.—P.M.)
 MANILA, Aug. 24.—(By Manila Cable.) The transport Logan arrived here at 10 o'clock this morning with Secretary Taft and party on board. The distinguished visitors, after enjoying a ride through San Juanico Strait on coast-guard cutters, witnessed a great parade of citizens of Tacloban, who showed every sign of business prosperity. They were subsequently entertained at lunch, after which they witnessed a dance of native school children. Gov. Curry of Samar Island introduced a delegation of 500 natives from that place, whose appearance constituted one of the most picturesque features of the festivities.

The transport Logan will sail for Legaspi, on the island of Luzon, tomorrow, August 25.

The party will separate at Hongkong. The following will return to America on the Pacific Mail steamer Korea, sailing on September 6: Secretary Taft, Senators Patterson, Foster, Du Bois, Scott and Long; Representatives Payne, Greaser, Curtis, Smith, De Armond, Hepburn, Jones, Loud, Driscoll, Hill, Cooper, Scott, Gilbert, Otjen, Howard, Wiley, McKinley, Shirley and Foss, Col. Edwards, Maj. Edie, Capt. Thompson and Kelly and Secretaries Carpenter and Pedigo.

The following members of the party will proceed to Peking, to be royally entertained by the Dowager-Empress of China, accompanying Miss Roosevelt, the specially-invited guest of the Empress: Senators Newlands and Warren, Representative Longworth, Gillette, Cochran. The party will be in charge of Maj.-Gen. and Mrs. Corbin and Capt. and Mrs. Riecum.

The Pacific Mail steamer Korea will sail from Yokohama on September 17 direct for the United States, and will attempt to make a record run across the Pacific. Miss Roosevelt and party will sail from Yokohama for America on the Pacific Mail company's steamer Siberia, leaving October 7.

CRUISER ASHORE.
 (BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.—P.M.)
 MANILA, Aug. 25.—(By Manila Cable.) The cruiser Rainbow, the flagship of the Philippine squadron, with Rear-Admiral Reiter on board, went ashore this morning at the mouth of the Agusan River, Butuan Bay, in Northern Mindanao.

A report to Rear-Admiral Reiter says that the Rainbow is not damaged, and is resting easily.

Admiral Reiter has dispatched tugboats to the assistance of the Rainbow.

LOGAN, ALSO CHOLERA.
 (BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.—P.M.)
 MANILA, Aug. 25.—The transport Logan arrived at Legaspi this morning.

A sporadic outbreak of cholera in Manila has been reported. It is thought that it is due to green vegetables from Hongkong. Yesterday, two soldiers died at Camp McKinley, which is now quarantined. In the city, several natives and one American woman have died. The surgeons of the Board of Health, state that the disease is not serious and that heroic efforts will be made to place it under control.

NEW YORK BOOMING.
 Building Operations Greater for Past Six Months Than for Any Record Year.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.—P.M.)
 NEW YORK, Aug. 24.—Building operations in New York City have been increased to such enormous proportions within the last six months, says the Herald, that the forces of the Borough building departments are unable to take care of the work, and an application was made yesterday to the authorities for an appropriation sufficient to double the force of inspectors, clerks, and other employees. One of the most interesting features in the situation is the fact that the greatest increase in building has been shown in Manhattan. Since rapid transit lines pushed into outlying districts, it has been generally expected that building operations on Manhattan Island would decrease rapidly, but figures submitted by the department of buildings show that the reverse is true. It is shown that from January 1 to June 22, 1905, plans filed in Manhattan represent a greater cost than in all the other four boroughs combined. The excess in Manhattan amounts to $14,754,428.

From January 10 to June 22 there were filed in Manhattan 2421 plans for new buildings and alterations representing a cost of $66,616,116.

This is nearly as large an amount of work as has been recorded in the department during the entire years since 1904.

CHOLERA IN PRUSSIA.
 Authorities are Alarmed and Take Action to Prevent the Spread of the Disease.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.—P.M.)
 DANZIG (Prussia), Aug. 24.—Two Russian raftsmen recently died at Culm, West Prussia, of what was diagnosed as Asiatic cholera. All Russian raftsmen there, including those recently arrived, have been detained on isolated, and energetic measures are being taken by the health authorities to discover any cases of the disease to prevent its spread. The decision of the conference of health authorities, which Prof. Gaffky, Chief of the Bureau of Infectious Diseases, Prussian Ministry of Education, Warship and Health, took part, was that there was no danger of the disease spreading, and considerable local alarm is not.

WORKMEN CAUSED WRECK.
 ALBANY (N. Y.), Aug. 24.—The coroner's examination of workmen who were digging a cellar under the Meyers department store at the time of its collapse recently shows that the men were warned of the impending disaster nearly an hour before the structure fell and killed thirty persons. When crumbling from two of the big piers in the cellar the whole force was put to work to brace the earth was continued their work until the last minute, when realizing their efforts were useless, they rushed out. All escaped unharmed except Foreman Mitchell, who was caught and badly injured.

AMBER L. DAY, "the whirlwind from the desert," deposited 3572 points from Yuma, Ariz., yesterday. This gave her the high score of the day. Considering the late date at which she entered the contest her progress is remarkable. Yuma is doing as well by Amber L. Day as Tucson is by her Territorial rival Orestes O. Orfila. Miss Day is making this progress in spite of the fact that Orfila had "tied up" an element in Yuma before Miss Day's candidacy was announced. St. Clair Morton of Santa Barbara, now number 2 in the score list, scored second in strength yesterday and made more points than did any other of the "high five." He is rapidly approaching the leadership of Mabel Soule.

Helen Pitner, the daughter of the Methodist minister, is developing strength every day and regaining the ground she lost while out of the city. Other high scores made are as follows: Bruce Moore, 2299; Blanche Cunningham, 2125; Carrie MacCloskey, 2097; Cecil Gilson, 1975; Jessie Mae King, 1780; Tessa Tag, 1525; Earle V. Wells, 1457; Gesiena Brunjes, 1450; Audrey Newton, 1324; Orestes O. Orfila, 1147; Robert Howard, 1110; Charlie Yglesias, 1109; Vivian Bassett, 1051.

The scores made by individual contestants yesterday produced fifteen changes in the relative positions of contestants, as follows: Myrtle Graham, 11 to 12; Audrey Newton, 12 to 11; Merle Melvin, 14 to 13; Blanche Cunningham, 15 to 14; Anna McNaughton, 19 to 20; Orestes O. Orfila, 20 to 19; Edna Schrock, 29 to 30; John A. Wharton, 30 to 29; Karl Marks, 34 to 35; Gertrude Wetzels, 35 to 34; H. King, 36 to 37; Robert Lee Scott, 37 to 38; Amber L. Day, 38 to 34; Forrest E. Senter, 46 to 47; E. Waldo Stein, 47 to 46.

RAILROAD NOTES.
From Tyler, Tex., came a subscription to The Daily Times in favor of Bruce Moore, yesterday. Bruce has received some support from almost every political subdivision of the United States. Letters accompanying the remittances do not reveal the character of the service rendered the Chickasaw nation since his election as United States Senator before a Federal department or anywhere else.

STATEMENT BY AUTHORITY.
(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.)
WASHINGTON, Aug. 24.—Acting Secretary Ryan of the Interior Department contradicted a statement published here that that department had made public a report reflecting upon Senator Burton in connection with the school warrants of the Chickasaw Indians. He said that an investigation had been made into the issuance of those warrants, in the course of which the discovery had been made that some of them had been issued to Senator Burton and his brother for services as attorneys, but no record had been found.

acter of his pull, or whether he is being remembered by cousins and uncles or by artists who sympathize with his ambition to improve himself in art. The contest is a contest of the spirit. Merle Melvin. The orphan boy is proving very popular and building an acquaintance which goes far beyond the State lines of California. He has received a number of subscriptions from several States of the Middle West. J. L. Edwards, editor of the Liberator, sends a check for $9 and asks that the credit of 500 points go to Jefferson, the contestant who represents the Afro-Americans. He says: "The great body of our people read The Times and are in full accord with its policy. I trust that every one of them will pay one year in advance and secure for him one of your scholarships. Jefferson is a worthy, bright, struggling boy and if successful will be a credit to those who aid him."

From Garden City, Kan., comes a subscription for Louie Gorman. Louie has circled his friends quite generally and has conducted his scholarship campaign along modern business lines, in the matter of liberal promotion and advertising. Theodore Leroy Miller receives the voluntary support of H. B. Little because Mr. Little's father was a soldier in the Thirty-fourth Indiana Regiment. Leroy's military ambitions appeal to Mr. Little because of touching recollections of his father's experience in the army.

Wilbur Brayton, 39 West Walnut street, Pasadena, started in the contest late. He works every day for the Model Grocery in Pasadena, and collects scholarship points as he makes his rounds.

Wilbur is 15 years of age. He wants a business college scholarship. His sister, Miss Ada Brayton, is giving her spare time to help the brother canvass for coupons and subscriptions. It will require ten thousand points this week to put Wilbur Brayton anywhere near the attainment of his ambitions.

PRIZES AT STAKE.
The contestant having the highest score at the close of the contest will have first choice of the following scholarships. The second highest will have second choice and so on to the bottom of the list. From time to time the list of scholarships will be enlarged.

The railroad company has done by the railroad company first, three, and a little later, great systems of the West are being funded to make the facts quick and to spread the facts. Woman's New Privilege.
According to the revised rules of the Presbyterian and the Methodist Episcopal churches on forms and services, just published in Pittsburgh, in the marriage service of the Presbyterian denomination the woman must promise to cherish and obey the man, as in the old form, is replaced by "keep," so that the wife promises only to "have, honor and keep" the husband. The change is a radical one, and may be accepted, perhaps, as a recognition of the growing independence of woman-kind.—(Washington Star.)

BROAD CULTURE THAT AT THROOP.

THOUGHT AND INDUSTRY HAPPILY COMBINED.

Throop Polytechnic Institute Offers Wide Variety of Work and Study. Academy Graduates are Admitted to Graduate Courses—Physical Director Installed.

One of the most valuable scholarships offered to Times contestants is that from Throop Polytechnic Institute. With its shops and laboratories, its college and academy courses, its grammar, normal and commercial schools, its departments of physical culture and athletics, its staff of thirty-three instructors, Throop offers a broad, liberal and practical education to young people of all ages and both sexes. The wide variety of work, each under a skilled specialist, affords advantages not often found in one and the same institution. The book work gives meaning to the shop work and the change from mental to manual labor gives relaxation and at the same time quickens the energy and enthusiasm of the student. Graduates of the Academy are admitted to the State University, Stanford and eastern institutions without examination, and those who have taken one or more years in the collegiate department have secured afterwards at these universities credit on their university course for the work done at Throop. A boy or girl may enter this institution beginning with the primary grade and pass successfully through the grammar, high school, college, commercial, academic or normal courses, graduating with a degree. He may take a thorough course in electrical engineering, chemical and natural science, leading to the degree of bachelor of science, and partial courses are offered in mining, civil and mechanical engineering. The value of the college work at Throop is conclusively proven by the high standard of its graduates and former students who occupy positions of responsibility as surveyors, engineers, expert electricians, chemists, foremen of shops and teachers in scientific institutions.

Within the walls of Polytechnic Hall one may fit himself to be a carpenter, a cook or a chemist, a mechanic, a milliner or a mineralogist, a dressmaker or a designer, an architect or an artist, an engineer or an electrician, a book-binder, an ironmonger, a woodcarver, a clay modeler, a draftsman, a milliner and his ability warrants. Last year a gasoline engine was built in the machine shop under the direction of Prof. Ford, who is at the head of the department of manual training. The engine is similar to that used in the automobile, and Prof. Ford built during the summer a 20-foot boat, in which the engine was placed, and the craft successfully launched at San Pedro a few days ago. Every year two or three engines are built by Throop mechanics in the workshop. Up at the Portland Exposition there is a splendid exhibit in the California building of representative work from the different departments of the Polytechnic Institute.

A "Supermarine" Boat. A novel form of high-speed boat has recently been devised by a French engineer, M. de Lambert, which involves a rapid departure from all previous designs of hull. It is termed a "skating," or "supermarine," boat for it is constructed to glide along the surface of the water rather than experience resistance by being immersed and passing through. This is accomplished by means of five inclined planes, which are fixed on the bottom of the hull, and which, when the boat is at rest, are a few inches in the water. When the motor is started the hull is raised, so that the boat runs with less resistance on the inclined planes, which then rest on a mixture of air and water.

The attainment of high speed by motor-boats which run on the surface of the water, rather than through it, has attracted some attention lately, and an English high-speed boat was built where this idea was considered in designing the hull, but the use of the inclined planes to diminish the resistance as successfully carried out in quite novel, and will doubtless be tried further.—(Harper's Weekly.)

An Impertinent Post.
"Why," asked Mrs. Oldcastle, "did your daughter break her engagement to that handsome young poet?"

"He insulted us," replied her hostess, as she carelessly ran her fingers through the pages of a 2500-copy of "Squibs and Glances." "In a poem he wrote about her he said she had lambs' eyes, and Josiah just wouldn't marry her because it was an insultation about us gettin' rich in the meat business."—(Chicago Record-Herald.)

And, even the cases in which the display is placed were made by the students. Arrangements have just been completed whereby two physicians will give medical examinations to students who wish to take part in athletics, specifying certain lines of work required by individual needs, and avoiding exercises which would prove injurious. Dr. E. B. Hoag will have charge of the boys, and Dr. Edith J. Claypole of the girls. A course in applied biology and home sanitation, including dietetics, food values, bacteriology, etc., will be given. During the past year an outdoor gymnasium has been erected and fully equipped with suitable apparatus. Adjoining it is a double tennis court and a general athletic field with eight-lap track.

An innovation has been introduced in the form of a boarding-hall for boys, superintended by a member of the faculty, which proved so successful last year when filled on a small scale that the board of trustees have purchased and fitted up a large building for the purpose convenient to the institute and surrounded by ample grounds, with abundant space for outdoor sports. Another new feature which will be appreciated is a lunchroom, where students can get a hot luncheon at nominal cost.

Throop Institute appeals to the serious-minded student who is willing to work hard for a good education. It is an immense beehive of industry, with no place for drones or dullards. William A. Edwards, L.D., is president, and the entire faculty is made up of men and women who are experts in their lines of work.

AMBER L. DAY, "the whirlwind from the desert," deposited 3572 points from Yuma, Ariz., yesterday. This gave her the high score of the day. Considering the late date at which she entered the contest her progress is remarkable. Yuma is doing as well by Amber L. Day as Tucson is by her Territorial rival Orestes O. Orfley. Miss Day is making this progress in spite of the fact that Orfley had "tied up" an element in Yuma before Miss Day's candidacy was announced. St. Clair Morton of Santa Barbara, now number 2 in the score list, scored second in strength yesterday and made more points than did any other of the "high five." He is rapidly approaching the leadership of Mabel Soule. Helen Pitner, the daughter of the Methodist minister, is developing strength every day and regaining the ground she lost while out of the city. Other high scores made are as follows: Bruce Moore, 2299; Blanche Cunningham, 2252; Carrie MacClokey, 2100; Cecil Gilson, 1878; Jessie Mae King, 1780; Tessa Tag, 1523; Earle V. Welles, 1457; Gesena Brunjes, 1450; Audrey Newton, 1224; Orestes O. Orfley, 1147; Robert Howard, 1110; Charlie Yglesias, 1100; Vivian Bassett, 1081.

The scores made by individual contestants yesterday produced a few changes in the relative positions of contestants, as follows: Myrtle Graham, 11 to 12; Audrey Newton, 12 to 13; Mabel Soule, 13 to 14; Blanche Cunningham, 15 to 16; Anna McNaughton, 19 to 20; Orestes O. Orfley, 20 to 21; Edna Schrock, 23 to 24; John A. Wharton, 29 to 30; Karl Marks, 34 to 35; Gertrude Wetzel, 35 to 36; Idell H. King, 36 to 37; Robert Lee Scott, 37 to 38; Amber L. Day, 38 to 39; Forest E. Senter, 46 to 47; E. Waldo Stein, 47 to 48.

BALLOT-BOX NOTES. From Tyler, Tex., came a subscription to The Daily Times in favor of Bruce Moore, yesterday. Bruce has received some support from almost every political subdivision of the United States. Letters accompanying the remittances do not reveal the character of the support.

STATEMENT BY AUTHORITY. (BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.) WASHINGTON, Aug. 24.—Acting Secretary Ryan of the Interior Department, contradicted a statement published here that that department had made public a report reflecting upon Senator Burton in connection with the school warrants of the Chickasaw Indians. He said that an investigation had been made into the issuance of those warrants, in the course of which the discovery had been made that some of them had been issued to Senator Burton and his brother for services as attorneys, but no record had been found.

acter of his pull; or whether he is being remembered by cousins and uncles or by artists who sympathize with his ambition in bringing him to art. Cascade, Mont., contributes to Merle Melvin. The orphan boy is proving a popular and building an acquaintance which goes beyond the State lines of California. He has received a number of subscriptions from several States of the Middle West. J. L. Edwards, editor of the Liberator, sends a check for $9 and asks that the credit of 500 points go to Jefferson, the contestant who represents the Afro-Americans. He says: "The great body of our people read The Times and are in full accord with its policy. I trust that every one of them will pay one year in advance and secure for him one of your scholarships. Jefferson is a worthy, bright, struggling boy and if successful will be a credit to those who aid him." From Garden City, Kan., comes a subscription for Lennie Gorman. Lennie has circulated his friends quite generally and has conducted his scholarship campaign along modern business lines, in the matter of liberal promotion and advertising.

Wilbur Brayton, 39 West Walnut street, Pasadena, started in the contest late. He works every day for the Model Grocery in Pasadena and collects scholarship points as he makes his rounds.

Wilbur is 15 years of age. He wants a business college scholarship. His sister, Miss Ada Brayton, is giving her spare time to help the brother canvass for coupons and subscriptions. It will require ten thousand points this week to put Wilbur Brayton anywhere near the attainment of his ambitions.

PRIZES AT STAKE. The contestant having the highest score at the close of the contest will have first choice of the following scholarships. The second highest will have second choice and so on to the bottom of the list. From time to time the list of scholarships will be enlarged as the number of contestants multiplies. The Times already has one and a half some of the following institutions. Every school is considered excellent in its line.

Passing of the Switchman. "The man at the switch may get so used to the order of the railroad officials in the light of the invention known as the 'electro-automated block signal.' The Lackawanna Railroad management is installing the device, which is declared 'practically infallible.' It does away with the man in the signal tower, where signals and switches were dependent on him. The man was and he was trusted, he was sober, he was faithful as a shepherd dog guarding his flock, backed by the human intelligence that is beyond brute imitation; but he wasn't a machine, and if-ah, that 'if'! How many engineers, darting through a network of tracks amid a sky of white and colored globes have silently asked themselves, as their eye settled upon the one determining signal, 'Is it O. K.?' And we are told that the last chance of a signal man closing his tired eyes in sleep or falling suddenly dead from heart failure is past, and that the invisible, powerful electric current will do the work more faithfully. Presumably, too, it will be cheaper. And whether improvement in interurban transit has come to stay—[New York Commercial.

Helpless in Politics. The fall of Addicks, "test we forget," should be chronicled from time to time. The fortunes of the gasman have now reached the point that his model dairy farm in Delaware is in the hands of a United States marshal, who has lately attached all of Addicks's personal property that can be found in the county. In his prosperous days Addicks had his milkmen wear liveries when milking the milk. It looks more and more as if Addicks would never break into the United States Senate. For he is helpless in politics without his dollars.—[Springfield Republican.

Woman's New Privilege. According to the record of the Presbyterian and the Methodist Episcopal churches on forms and services, just published in Pittsburgh, in the marriage service of the Presbyterian denomination the woman must promise to cherish and obey the man, as in the old form, while in the Methodist ritual the word "obey" is replaced by "keep," so that the wife promises only to "love, honor and keep" the husband. The change is a radical one, and may be accepted, perhaps, as a recognition of the growing independence of woman-kind.—[Washington Star.

A "Supermarine" Boat. A novel form of high-speed boat has recently been devised by a French engineer, M. de Lambert, which involves a radical departure from all previous designs of hull. It is termed a "skating" or "supermarine" boat for it is constructed to glide along the surface of the water rather than experience resistance by being immersed and passing through. This is accomplished by means of five inclined planes which are fixed on the bottom of the hull, and which, when the boat is at rest, are a few inches in the water. When the engine is started the hull is raised, so that the boat runs with less resistance on the inclined planes, which then rest on a mixture of air and water.

With a twelve-horse-power petrol engine it is reported that a speed of from 35 to 38 knots an hour can be made, a rate not always attained by motor boats with eighty-horse-power engines. The new boat is also capable of being handled with considerable facility, and stopped readily.

The attainment of high speed by motor-boats which run on the surface of the water, rather than through it, has attracted some attention lately, and an English high-speed boat was built where this idea was considered in designing the hull, but the use of the inclined planes to diminish the resistance as successfully carried out is quite novel, and will doubtless be tried further.—[Harper's Weekly.

MINES AND MINING.
WOOD MINES
AT GOLDFIELD.
Explorers Go, Town Lots
Boom No More.

Six Millions Have Been Taken from Earth.

Angels Should Get Busy
and Seek Trade.

Gold has not faded out. Not over as town lots go:
people have left on account of
and others are prospecting
but the mines are good.

There is water enough for all domestic use. There is some shortage of water, but then there are hopes of a dam.

Gold will be in next month and there will have a fair show at last in getting better as work goes.
Only copper is being found—million dollars in ore has been and shipped during the existence. Twenty shipping and many more good prospects waiting.

Some 200 and 700 men employed in mines and mills in prospecting.
Most important of all, Los Angeles should realize the wonderful wealth of Nevada's new fields and get a share of the business in where points comprise the sum of the views of H. B.

Goldfield, an enthusiastic of the great districts of the State as ever came "down and visited Los Angeles. His views, however, are made in a

has been and is some de-

and frenzied speculators sought
a new—but the mines, he says, K and will make Nevada one of the world's great treasure houses.

EDITIONS AT GOLDFIELD.
Goldfield is not dead yet, not by a it is not enough just now and miners are getting out if they can't find it. But that cuts
Mr. Lind at the Hotel yesterday. "But that cuts
it. It is mines, not speculation that we want. That we want of the gold, that wasn't so much turned out a small part and did any permanent damage.

Goldfield has today a score of mines
actually shipping ore." Mr.
Lind on a tone of quiet faith added: "Within another year
we may expect to have 100, to 200,000 tons of gold, from which $1-has been taken in a year, and as 2 feet of the surface. Then in the January that yielded a is that every lead that has been found has been found improved with depth. Or everything is not uniform and has taken hold of some that mine is simply a lot of rich

ABIDING COMMUNITY.
There have been no labor troubles here, said Mr. Lind in answer to a question. "The miners are organized to be strong, how strong it may be. Their union's strength has been out to any test. So far they have been quiet and enough in their relations with employers. If anyone has suffered from them I believe that had them they would have received it.
The Sheriff of Esmeralda county building community and the will never tolerate any other kind of men, or any who are to make trouble we have not of them, and if they try it we are prepared for them. But we do not anticipate anything of

LOS ANGELES WAKE UP.
Los Angeles people should wake up and do not seem to realize what a valuable territory you have at your feet. The merchants and every citizens should be interested.
I should put in from the south to the north. We want it and want it bad. Today San Francisco has a large line direct into Tonopah and have one into Goldfield. Next time you know that means business. Price merchants realize it.
are getting busy. If you don't in quickly business amounting to $100,000 will go to San Francisco, and even Denver.

POWER AND WATER.
One of our crying needs is cheaper power. The power we will get in a few weeks, brought from Creek in Inyo county, just the state line. The wires are all the work nearly finished. For the work and coal are both being used.
I understand, comes from the state, but I have never inquired about these matters. Now get better rates and then with power and fuel, mills will be and business improved.
I have had some difficulty about but we have enough for immediate use, and if it is needed, it of bringing it from the White to Silver Peak was investigated and found feasible and would be no more difficult or

There is a district in Nevada about 100 and 100 miles wide and this territory there is mining everywhere.

Scientific Christian Kick.
Mr. Brown, representing the Science Publication Committee to the Times, objected to an article concerning Christians, recently published in these columns. He says:

Article relates to diphtheria in the San Joaquin Valley and children became subject to this and Christian Science healers

were called in, but as the ailment refused to yield to this odd form of treatment a certified physician with medicine and bottles was called. I have personally investigated these cases and learned that the parents called in a Christian Science practitioner, who, in compliance with the law, notified the health officer. This action was done solely to conform to the health officer regulations, and not because Christian Science was not equal to the case, as the parents fully realized that the Christian Science method of treatment is more efficacious than other systems in the cure of diphtheria.

Mr. Brown continues: "Recent investigation discloses the fact that Christian Science cures seventy per cent. of the cases of various diseases given up by the physicians as incurable." No proof to sustain this remarkable assertion is offered.

Again: "The second article quotes
Rev. Chapman as saying: 'False doctrines have arisen, and the chiefest of these is Christian Science. The Christian Scientists dishonor our Lord. Anything which covers or hides the purpose for which Christ came is false, and ought to be rebuked.' To this declaration Mr. Brown enters a vigorous re-test. He should 'have it out' with Mr.
Chapman himself.

THE OIL INDUSTRY.
BIG CONTRACTS
ARE SOUGHT.

CITY ASSOCIATION WILL BID ON ALL THAT COME UP.

Combine Gives Small Producers a Chance to Try for Large Business from Which They Were Barred.
What Associated Aimed at in Contract at Kern River.

The directors of the Southern California Oil Producers' Association met yesterday to consider the question raised by the City Council's decision to buy no oil for streets. There was a rather warm discussion behind closed doors and then an adjournment was taken until Saturday to give time for consultation with the other members of the association of descending upon the city fathers in full force.

The association received advices yesterday that the contract for 20,000 barrels for fuel at the Santa Ana city waterworks was awarded to the Central Oil Company of Whittier. The specifications called for bids for delivery at Santa Ana, either upon a basis of 10,000 barrels at once and the balance in eighteen months or at any time within a period of three years.
The Central's bid was 52 cents for the first conditions and 56 for the second.
The association's bid was 74 1/2 cents for the three-year basis and 59 1/2 for the eighteen months' contract.

But for the organization of the association the city producers could hardly have had the opportunity to bid on this or any contract of similar size.
With well-organized effort, ten barrels or less a day there are very few indeed who could consider such a matter, but with nearly all the product under fine management a determined effort is to be made to capture all big business in sight until the entire production is sold.

To secure every one of the contracts of this size for the city field would mean a new lease of life to many producers.

GIVES UP WHOLESALE LINE.
The Penn Oil Delivery, the concern that sells Eastern kerosene in the city, has disposed of the wholesale branch of its business which will hereafter be handled by a Standard Oil company. The reason for this is that the Penn people are that they had absolutely no trade to keep them busy without attempting to do a wholesale business. It is understood that about fifty customers are transferred to the big monopoly.

THAT INDEPENDENT CONTRACT.
Since the publication of the announcement that the Independent Agency at Bakersfield is way behind in its delivery to the Associated under contract, it has been stated by officers of that organization that they are confident of finishing up the total by April. They also assert that sixty days of this additional time is due to the delay in completing the Associated's pipe connections. This expectation is evidently not shared by the Associated people, nor by many members of the Agency either.

The contract was clearly negotiated by General Manager Porter with a view to complete control of the entire output during its lifetime, not as some of the independents seem to have imagined simply as a means of getting an immediate supply, however, much that may or may not have been needed.
This is shown by the little understood, but hard and fast, requirements as to amount to be delivered regardless of time and the storage clause that compels all above the amount marketed by the combine to be held in reservoirs and kept off the market until released or purchased by the Associated under its option. It is clear that the contract was ratified blindly.

NO SMALL COMPETITION.
"Keep the small fry out of the market. Too much competition, or any competition in fact means not the life of trade, but the death of it in oil business. Let the big fellows do the selling and get the price, then we will pay well in the field."

This exactly sums up the position of the Associated Oil Company in regard to the producers and the market. The combine has never officially said this in these words, but as some speak loudly and a policy inaugurated at the very outset and followed persistently, followed despite all obstacles, speaks loudest. In private, directors and those in closest touch with them admit the truth of this. It is in line with this policy, too, that the combine has been for the past year and a half particularly and is still working to get the big ones into some kind of a combination. Independents have always looked upon the movement with suspicion and doubt the talk of better prices in the field with absolute control in the hands of the combine.

SCRIPPER TURNED DOWN.
The commissioner of the general land office at Washington has sustained the decision of the register and receiver at Visalia in the contest case of the Bakersfield Oil and Fuel Company versus E. C. Miller, involving lands in the Kern field, which were claimed by the former under placer location and on which the latter filed a forest lien claim. The decision is adverse to Miller.

COAL AND OIL IN MEXICO.

The Mexican government has appointed a commission to investigate the need of reform in the present laws governing the ownership of coal and oil deposits, title to which now goes with the land, instead of remaining with the State as is the case with gold, silver, copper and other minerals. This, it is contended, has been the means of keeping the two industries in a very backward state, and by depriving the country of cheaper fuel has retarded all lines. Lands are generally owned in large tracts by men who know nothing of oil and coal and care less,
and so the deposits remain untouched.

YUMA'S GALA DAYS.

Preparing for Big Carnival Marking Mexican Independence Day and Opening of Dam Work.

Yuma is making a grand bustle in preparation for the four-day carnival to be given in that city September 15-18, inclusive, in celebration of Mexican Independence Day. The programme
now being arranged will include Mexican and American outdoor sports, a grand ball, a Spanish carnival with all its attendant gaiety, and numerous features not yet determined upon.

Frank Lee, business manager of the Carnival Association, which is directing the affair, arrived in Los Angeles
yesterday, and is at the Hotel Beck, booking attractions and making other arrangements for the event. P. P.
Hodges and J. L. Redondo are president and secretary of the association, respectively.

"While the carnival will be devoted in great part to the celebration of Mexican Independence Day," said Mr.
Lee, "it also is intended as a jubilation over the beginning of work on the Yuma project of the United States Reclamation Service, which provides for the expenditure of $3,000,000 to afford irrigation of a vast expanse of territory in the vicinity of Yuma, and which means much to that section.

"In this connection, a steershead trip will be made up the Colorado River from Yuma to the Laguna Hamsle, a distance of fourteen miles. The steamer Searchlight will be used for the purpose, and it is expected that a large crowd will be attracted by the prospect of viewing the progress of the great work.

There is to be a big parade in Yuma on the 16th, prizes having been offered for the best floats and for other novel features, and in the evening of that day is to be a ball at Elmer Hall. The Phoenix is to furnish music throughout the carnival.

"Among the outdoor attractions arranged for are steering and roping contests, Mexican sports, and a hay-baling contest, in which a number of steam-baling machines will have a part.

"Arrangements have been made for half rates on the railroads, and Yuma is in excellent shape to care for the crowds that are expected."

Hahn Out of Good Job.
State Senator is "Permitted" to Resign as Attorney for Provident Building and Loan.

After serving a few weeks as attorney for the Provident Mutual Building and Loan Association, State Senator B. W. Hahn of Pasadena has been "permitted" to resign. He was put in the place of O. B. Carter, whose removal as attorney for the Provident was coincident with the ousting of G.
H. Wadleigh as secretary and managing agent. The reason given for the dropping of Hahn is that his residence is in Pasadena, but the real reason is said to be because of his affiliation with other associations. Attorney A. R.
McCutchen of this city is the new counsel for the Provident.

Los Angeles Daily Times

FRIDAY MORNING, AUGUST 25, 1905.

FAIREST OF MEXICO OUR SUMMER GUESTS.

Beautiful and Talented Members of Leading Wealthy Families of Southern Republic Tarry Here for Term in Pursuit of Pleasure.

THAT Los Angeles is one of the world's most popular summer resorts for the wealthy aristocracy of Mexico, which knows its Paris and London better than the average American of the same class, is no news to your cultured Don y Doña across the border, but it is a fact of which the average Los Angeles knows practically nothing.

Enduring since the romantic days of early California history to the present time, there is a mystic bond of sympathy which binds Los Angeles to the hearts of the Mexicans as to no other city in this or their own country. It is the only American city which conveys to them the indescribable charm of the picturesque capitals of Latin America and affords them the comforts children educated in American and European schools, speaking their English as well as their French and Spanish, faultlessly learned in the sciences, finished in the arts, and fitted for the best and highest professions.

This summer colony is made up of merchants, mining men, lawyers, doctors, men well up in national politics, ranchers, retired capitalists, and their wives and children, among the latter many who have either completed courses in Los Angeles colleges or who are planning to finish their studies in the educational institutions of this city. While a number of visiting families are spending their time principally at the beach resorts, where they have cottages, the center and heart of this distinctive Mexican colony is to be found about Grand avenue, Hope and Olive shows marked evidences of preparing for a more permanent residence here in the future, each and every one of the members are worthy of particular note, and especially among these it would be not amiss to mention the following:

QUEEN'S SON.

The Misses Laura and Elena Paredes, and Josefa Gaxiola, of Hermosillo, are enjoying the summer in a little flat on West Fourteenth street.

Miss Jesus Duron, a winningly beautiful girl, and her cousin, Maria Correla, a namesake of the famous novelist, both of Hermosillo, are visiting relatives at No. 1354 South Grand avenue.

Mrs. Maria Ruiz de Morgan, wife of a successful American mining man of Minera la Colorado, Sonora, accompanied by her sister, Miss Isabel Ruiz, Mrs. Gonzales and son, Manuel, of Guaymas, owner of the Hotel Alameda; Mrs. Cosca and daughter, Mrs. Pacheco, of Guaymas, principal owners of the commercial house of P. Cosca y Cia.; the Misses Justina, Maria and Amalia Gonzales of Hermosillo; Miss Carmen Camou, the Misses Laura and Mercedes Pessqueira, of Hermosillo; Mrs. Carmen V. B. de Gonzales, a prominent business woman of Guaymas, Miss Maria Campillo, of Nogales; Jose Juan Mendez, of the Banco Minero de Hermosillo; Aniseto Penufuri, a business man of Batuc; Agapito Torres, a rancher of Mineral Las Prietas; Adalberto Gonzales, a merchant of Hermosillo; Pedro Cosca, a business man of Guaymas, and Alejandro Camou, a ranch owner near Hermosillo.

streets, south of Tenth. Here one may wander these perfect summer evenings and hear as much Spanish in a short distance as would strike his ears on the great thoroughfare of Calle San Francisco in Mexico City, and more than he would hear in the American business quarter of the Calle de Gante, of the same capital.

And here also the passer-by may see evidences of Nature's brilliant coloring in types of femininity which have made the Spanish woman world-famed for and luxuries of metropolitan civilization as well. Here they are as much at home as in Paris or Madrid, with their populous Mexican colonies of retired millionaires.

But while Los Angeles has proven a popular summer resort in the past for wealthy Mexicans, it has remained for this year to break the record for summer resident visitors from the land of Diaz. More than three hundred representatives of the oldest, most aristocratic and wealthy families of the Southern Republic, especially from the northern States, and Sonora in particular, are summering this season in Los Angeles. And they freely predict that they and their friends to the number of 500 and more will make their summer homes here next year.

These summer visitors are of that charming type of cultured, well-to-do and hospitable Mexicans, who so few foreigners have the good fortune ever to know well, and falling an intimate acquaintance with whom, it is impossible for one to say he knows the Mexican people. They are the representatives of the happy modern mixture of the old school of gallantry and finished courtesy, and the new of progressive mental and material development. They typify the past and the future, in the parents who speak no English, and the beauty and wondrous physical development in this exotic summer colony, which is staying at No. 1601 South Hope street.

A bunch of Mexican beauties

Eriberto Molino, a wealthy merchant of Sonora, is residing during the summer at Fourteenth street and Grand avenue, and at the same place there is living Carlos Ramirez and family, a shrewd capitalist of Hermosillo.

BANQUERO DE SONORA.
Another successful man of finance from Mexico summering in Southern California is Sr. Ismael M. Ruiz, general manager of the Banco Minero of Hermosillo.

Sr. Ruiz is accompanied by his wife, a charming and lovely lady from the southland, who, like her busy husband, is frankly delighted with the pleasures of their outing.

A strong partisan of Sonora, Sr. Ruiz, contends that his State is the greatest in the Mexican Union in mineral riches and broad ranging lands. He also stoutly maintains and those who have met the fascinating feminine members of the summer colony here will agree with him, that Sonora boasts of her beautiful women, blessed with brains and a keen sense of humor as well as with pronounced physical comeliness.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Ruiz came to California by steamer, landing at "Pico" and proceeding thence to Los Angeles, where they are content to remain during the remainder of their outing.

UN RANCHERO RICO.
Antonio Varela, a wealthy cattleman of Sonora, is living with his family at No. 238 West Fifteenth street, and all the members of this family party pronounce themselves charmed with Los Angeles.

Jose Maria Miranda and family of Hermosillo, and Mrs. Maria Miranda de Gaxiola, their married daughter, have apartments at Thirteenth and Hill streets; there also live at the same number the Misses Luisa and Estrella Iberri, two beautiful belles of Guaymas. Filomeno Loaiza, one of the best-known merchants of Hermosillo, with his wife and two charming daughters, is spending the summer in Los Angeles, having a house on South Grand avenue. With him and his wife is Miss Guadalupe Martinez of Hermosillo.

Filomeno Suarez, a wealthy Sonora landowner, with his family is numbered with the Mexican summer colony; Benito Suarez, a well-known drug-gist of Hermosillo, is living with his family for the summer at No. 210 West Eleventh street.

Lic. Guillermo Dominguez, an influential lawyer and statesman of Sonora, with his family, is staying at No. 229 West Eleventh street.

Señor Max Muller, general manager of the Banco de Sonora, of Hermosillo is spending the summer with his family at Santa Monica.

Florencia Monte Verde, a successful mine operator of Hermosillo, and family, are living out on Westlake avenue. CASA SENA DE HUETEPED.
At the home of Mrs. Elmda Howard, No. 1019 South Olive street, there are visiting the following:

the following visitors are quartered for the summer.

Ismael Ruiz and wife, Hermosillo; Mrs. Carmen S. de Candara, a successful cattle-woman and landowner of Sonora; together with her four sons and daughter; Mrs. Francisco de Fontes, wife of a prominent merchant of Hermosillo, with her two daughters; Dr. Manuel Samaniego, and his wife, of Chihuahua; Mrs. Louisa de Mascareñas, wife of the Mexican Consul at Nogales; Mrs. Louisa de Fleischer, wife of a successful Sonora merchant, with her sons; Mrs. Dolores de Verchias, and son, wife of a hacendado and miner; Mrs. Maria de Haripur, wife of the customs agent at Guaymas; Mrs. Guadalupe de Martinez, Mrs. Leonidas de Tarber, Hermosillo; Misses Elena and Serafina Mix, of Nogales; Pedro Brena and Rodolfo Iberri, Alfonso Yberri, Alfredo Velasco, Guaymas; Francisco Tapia, hacendado and landowner, with his wife and two daughters; Miss Carmen Morales, Conrado Monte Verde, hacendado, of Alamos, with his wife; Emilio Clausen, of the branch of the National Bank in Sonora; Mrs. Carmen de Gonzales, and sons; Lic. Jose Monteverde, and wife; Mrs. Margarita de Ramirez and family, of Nogales; Epifanio Salido, hacendado of Alamos and his sisters; German Hley and wife, Alamos; Esperanza Noreiga, and Francisca Urchurtu.

At the home of Mrs. Agnes R. Smith, No. 1501 South Hope street, are to be found: Mrs. Morgan and family, Ramon Montalvo and family, Hermosillo; Angel Alvarado, a wealthy landowner of Alamos, and family; Epitacio Palafox, a rancher, and family; Jose Torres, also a rancher, and his son, of Hermosillo; Ruperto Corral, Jose Mason and family; Hermosillo; Mrs. Emilia Yberri and family; Mrs. Mariano de Aguayo, family and aunt, Guaymas; Miss M. Andrade, daughter of General Andrade, Hermosillo; Isabel Ruiz, Sr. Barea and family, Hermosillo; and Lic. Jose Quinn, a lawyer, of Fuerte, Sonora.

HEAVY FOR THIS SEASON.
Eight sleepers, two passenger coaches, two baggage and one mail coach, trailed behind the two monster engines that crawled out of La Grande Station last night with the Santa Fe Overland train bound East. Every berth in the long string of sleepers was taken and the "make-up" was one of the largest that has gone East during the month.

PAINTER'S TUMBLE.
E. A. Briggs of No. 2112 Leoti street and E. D. Briggs of No. 2107 South Main street, two painters, were hurt at a new building at the corner of Court and Bunker Hill avenue yesterday. A scaffold upon which they were working broke in the middle, letting them fall from the second story to the ground. Both were wrenched about the back and severely bruised.

MISS HALE IS NOW IN JAIL.

Indicted Here and Arrested in Portland.

Door of Hope Charity Worker Must Come Back.

Made Sensational Escape by Boarding a Steamer.

Fearing lest Francis Hale, the sunset blonde who got up fake benefits for the Door of Hope here, would make the grand jury sent a fascinating Pinkerton detective after her. He did not get her. But the chief of police of Portland did. She was arrested in that city last night and will be brought back for trial. A bench warrant from the Superior Court of this county is the instrument which resulted in her arrest. The bench warrant was issued Tuesday when the grand jury indicted her.

A special telegram to The Times describes how she made a sensational escape from a Pinkerton detective in San Francisco, Tuesday, being hauled up the side of an outgoing ship. It was like a Grand Operahouse melodrama. She knew she was "wanted" and cleverly gave the officer clean foretelling that the telegraph was too fast for her. The steamer was bound for Portland where Miss Hale was to get up another "benefit" for some "worthy cause." When she landed in Portland, however, she found the bench warrant waiting for her. She will be brought back for trial on a charge of obtaining money by false pretences.

Frances was so angry at Los Angeles that she went away the next day after the Door of Hope benefit, clean forgetting to give the Door of Hope its attenuated share of the proceeds; she evidently thought it no use bothering over mere trifles.

She had arranged with the Door of Hope that the society should get $100 and 15 per cent. of the gate receipts. Francis to reap the other sheaves.

There weren't any gate receipts and Frances forgot half of the promised $100.

It is not, however, her unfeeling treatment of the Door of Hope Society that is the substance of the charge against her. Her alleged crime consists of her representations to the business men to whom she sold tickets. In selling the tickets to merchants and business men, she drew on their sympathies by describing the worthy purposes of the Door of Hope. She was simply a hypnotist. Her sad words drew forth the coin.

The donors supposed that they were digging for the Door of Hope. As a matter of fact, every dollar they put up went into the dainty pocket of Miss Frances. The Door of Hope would have received no more money had it not been for the tickets sold or 50 cents worth. The society was to get the $100, irrespective of any ticket sales.

M. AND M. TAKES A HAND.

The scheme was so raw and palpable that the Merchants' and Manufacturers' Association pounced upon it with a howl, demanding that she give back the money. In one or two cases she gave back checks, but mostly she held onto them with death grip.

She even postponed the benefit to give her time in which to sell more tickets.

The M. and M. then applied to the District Attorney for a complaint against her; demanded her arrest. Frances was grievously pained, but held onto the money. It was some time before the complaint was refused.

The benefit then was a case of social. Frances was met in the corridors by the directors of the Door of Hope, who were furious over the predicament into which she had dragged them.

She made liberal promises, and was missing next morning. Immediately thereafter, her case was taken up by the grand jury, the indictment resulting. A warrant issued Tuesday.

HOW SHE ESCAPED.

The San Francisco reporters did not understand the reason that impelled this handsome young woman to be in such a hurry. They want a description of Frances's thrilling off-taking.

"Bound for Portland, and determined not to be outdone by the steamship upon which she had secured transportation had backed out into the bay and was backed on its journey. Miss Frances Hale, an eastern tourist, hurriedly arranged with the boat's agents Tuesday afternoon to haul the outgoing Roanoke, and then hastily bargained with boatmen to row her to its side. When a rope ladder had been lowered, she climbed aboard, amid cheers from the crowds on shore and those who were to be her fellow-passengers during the trip.

"Miss Hale is a tall, slender, weighing 170 pounds, but this did not hinder her in the least, and she made ascent of nearly thirty-five feet as gracefully as a trained acrobat. She had beautiful auburn hair and is said to be a actress. Miss Hale came here from Los Angeles. She is not more than 24 years of age.

"First, Miss Hale's satchel was pulled aboard. Then followed her parcels, and last, but not least, her pocketbook was attached to a line and pulled up. The same line, which looked like thread if those on the pier, was the rope which around the venturesome woman's waist and with a quick glance at the crowd she started to climb Jacob's Ladder."

DETECTIVE USED WIRE.

It has since been learned that from the moment Miss Frances left Los Angeles, she had been shadowed by a Pinkerton detective. In some manner she learned this and that was the reason she chose such a spectacular way of getting aboard the steamer, but the officer had a card to play that she had not taken into consideration. He knew that the Roanoke would not stop south of Portland and he reasoned that the northern waters are much too cold for even warm Miss Frances to swim ashore, so all he did was to wire Portland and there when she stepped her dainty foot upon the dock of the PUBLIC SERVICE—OFFICIAL DOINGS.

Dying victim of chiropractic doctor brought into court on a stretcher.

SUMMARY OF THE DAY.

Rather than face the heads of departments whose estimates they had reduced the day before until some of them say they cannot get along for the next fiscal year, the members of the City Council practically deserted the City Hall yesterday. The department heads are contemplating a reduction in working forces.

That there are two sides to every story was emphasized yesterday in the Riviere will case by the filing of an amended contest to the will of the late Louis Riviere.

J. S. Barrett, the Long Beach bully who was sentenced to a term in jail and to pay a fine, skipped out, and suit is now being pressed against his bondsmen to collect $1000.

John Reichsteiner was brought into court on a stretcher yesterday to testify against Dr. Storey, the chiropractic physician.

John Carpenter, a messenger boy, was fined $25 yesterday for beating his best girl.

AT THE CITY HALL.

"GROUCHINESS" ON FINANCE.

OFFICIALS BLUE OVER THEIR SIDETRACKED HOPES.

Everybody Out of Sight Yesterday to Give the Atmosphere a Chance to Clear—Hanley Will Do His Best and Park Commission Will Try to Keep the Grass Green.

There was considerable grouchiness among the City Hall officials yesterday, as a reflex of the cutting down of their allowances. They all had planned things which they regarded as being for the betterment of the service in their several departments, and naturally feel a little sore that they must now forget all their plans.

Street Superintendent Hanley thinks he was hit a little harder than some of the others, but he philosophically says he'll have to do the best he can with the money available.

Councilmen, Mayor, and everybody else who could get away were out of sight, giving the storm a chance to blow over.

All the fine intentions of the Park Commission to beautify the present city parks more extensively than has been the annual custom, and to improve a half-dozen new ones, went sailing overboard in the same cause.

The commission yesterday re-let the boating privilege in Westlake Park to E. McKillup, the present lessee. He will pay $250 for the first year and $100 for the second year. They also approved the bid of Anderson & Sons for the construction of toilets in the same park, at a cost of $125.

Some pleasanties passed between the members of the commission as they sat about the table, concerning being able to keep the parks green during the coming year, and they were evidently chagrined at the destruction of their hope.

Dr. Lamb, president of the commission, while pleased at the disposition of the railroads to think that it might be further elaborated and give a still better impression to tourists. He suggests that the Park Commission be ready to supply plants and shrubs for such work, if the railroads will agree to make use of them in establishing green parks about their terminals.

Inimitable "Bob" Burdette.

Again readers of the Times may enjoy the quaint humor in the writings of this famous newspaper paragon, lecturer and preacher, now journeying on an extensive European tour. Mr. Burdette will write one of his inimitable letters for the Times each Sunday during his journey.

What About Today?

You have noticed that I teach a system of physical culture which restores vitality to sickly people, and thus cures disease, and I am eating many lives. And you intend to come sometime to see about it, for you are not well and perhaps may be nearing a serious or fatal illness. Next week may be too late to attend to this. Why not do it today? NEW AND STARTLING PHASE OF RIVIERE WILL CONTEST.

Mrs. Alice Riviere Alleged to Have Married Before Ink on Her Divorce Decree Was Dry, and Then to Have Piled Husband With Drink Till He Became Deregarded.

The contest over the will of the late Louis Riviere, the young Frenchman who left a $500,000 estate largely made up of extensive acreage on West Jefferson street, is being played like a game of chess by the contending lawyers.

The attorneys for Fritz Bachman, the bartender, who strangely enough is mentioned in the last recent will as executor without bond, filed the will for probate. Then the attorneys for Jean Pierre Riviere, a brother of the deceased, went into court and filed a prior will, alleging that to be the only, and pure last will of Louis Riviere, but the wording of the contest was so obscure that after being argued in court, counsel for Pierre confessed ambiguity. They had in the meantime learned much about the case for the other side, and yesterday filed an amended contest in which a strange story is unfolded.

The last will made by the deceased left all the property to the wife, while the prior will offered by the brother, left half of the estate to Jean Pierre Riviere and the remaining half to the widow.

But in this amended contest the claim is set up that there is no widow; and therein lies the story. About eight years before the death of Louis Riviere it is alleged that he became acquainted with one Alice Buysse, who lived with her husband, Bruno Buysse, and aided in running a lodging-house, and illicitly selling liquors. Louis was then a boy under 20 years of age, while Mrs. Buysse is alleged to have been from ten to fifteen years his senior. But notwithstanding this disparity in age, it is claimed the deceased became infatuated with the woman, and that his ignorance of her wicked acts involved the said decedent into her power. An intrigue then began that ended only with the death of Louis.

After these dubious relations had continued for about a year Bruno Buysse separated from his wife, and Alice Buysse lived together as man and wife. In November of 1902 the woman applied for a divorce from Buysse and obtained the interlocutory decree. On December 29 of the same year—just one month and seventeen days after the granting of the interlocutory decree—Louis Riviere died. He had acquired and exercised complete dominion over both the mind and body of Riviere, carried him off to Santa Barbara. The deceased, acting as it is claimed, under the mandate of the woman, went before the County Clerk and obtained a license to marry one Alice B. Clark, her own daughter. At the time Louis obtained the license it is averred that he was drunk. But the ceremony of marriage was performed by a justice of the peace. It is furthermore claimed that Louis had not the slightest idea that under the law of this State the woman was not an eligible party and that his ignorance of the one-year divorce limit was complete. Taking advantage of this ignorance on the part of her husband, Mrs. Alice Riviere is alleged to have used this bit of false swearing as a lever by which she turned and twisted her husband to suit her own purposes. It is claimed by Jean Pierre Riviere that the marriage was void and illegal, and that consequently no widow survives to inherit as the widow of the deceased.

But counsel for Mrs. Riviere are not taking it by surprise. They claim that the marriage, though decidedly "informal" was not void, but only a voidable one by any court of competent jurisdiction. Louis, the husband, being dead, the marriage must stand for purposes of inheritance. So that part of the fight will be whether under the law, Mrs. Alice Riviere makes a marriage within a year from the date of divorce the law means just what it says or not. But there are other claims of contest, and a full sufficiency of relatives to stand in line for the inheritance, putting the widow to one side. Brother Pierre avers that the next of kin and heirs-at-law of the deceased are Mrs. Natalie Loutan and four nephews and nieces, Felice, Pierre, Cecile, and Helen Bruges, minor children of a deceased sister, Ynes Riviere Berge, and brother Pierre himself.

Louis Riviere is claimed to have been of unsound intellect, and long before his death is alleged to have become of bearded mind and utterly incompetent. Some years ago he fell ill with pulmonary consumption and abandoned himself to an intemperate life, and then it was, so it is claimed, that he fell in with Fritz Bachman. Fritz was tending bar at the roadhouse on Western avenue, and from noon until eve Louis Riviere would hang around the bar and drink. Bachman is charged with having acted in the interest of Mrs. Alice Riviere and to have piled the dying man with drink, and the contention is that while he was thus depressed and besotted with drink the wife molded her husband to her own will. Contestant avers that she by persistent importunity deluded him into the belief that her children by her former husband, Bruno Buysse, were his children; and he calls them by his own name in the will it is sought to overturn. This claim is claimed, is not the case of Louis, but the will of Alice Buysse-Riviere and Fritz Bachman, and as such ought to be refused probate in the interest of justice. The story outlined in the Times last Sunday is amplified and rounded out by this later contention on the part of the contestant to the will.

BARRETT SKIPPED.

LEFT HORSEWHIP BEHIND. J. S. Barrett, the 400-pound Long Beach real estate man who brutally horsewhipped Charles W. Stewart, a man less than half his size, and weight, for some difference over business matters, lost all his courage when he was called upon to pay for his fun.

Barrett thought he would not have a fair show at Long Beach and took a chance of venue to a local court in this city. It was shown at the trial that Barrett had purchased a loaded rawhide with the apparent purpose of bulldozing young Stewart, and when the latter happened into the office, big Barrett acted the part of bully and covered to a dot. The defendant was found guilty of a battery as charged, and was sentenced to pay a fine of $500 and serve thirty days in the County Jail.

Barrett thought the sentence an outrage. Even if he had "overstepped the boundaries of privilege" from a legal standpoint, he thought that a nominal fine "would have satisfied the requirements." He was unrepentant and appealed the case. In taking the appeal Barrett was found guilty of a battery on the bond for his appearance. In the sum of $1000. The lower court was affirmed, and then when it was sought to collect the amount of the bond, and make him serve his sentence, it was discovered that he had skipped, leaving his bondsmen in the lurch. His wife whimpered around the District Attorney's office, saying she was sure her husband had gone off somewhere to shoot himself. But just about that time he was turning a trick or two in Bakersfield. Since then, however, it seems he has left the State, and yesterday the District Attorney began suit against Harwood and Llewellyn to collect the amount of the bond. Though they went on the bond to cover the very contingency that has arisen, it is understood they now refuse to pay.

COURTHOUSE NOTES.

BREVITIES MISCELLANEOUS. TWO ELECTIONS. On April 3 last, the annual election of the Puja Junga Company controlling water in the big Tejonja, was held at Independence, Iowa. There was a difficulty among the stockholders, and while the majority elected a board of directors the minority followed suit and also elected a board. Homer A. Hansen was secretary of the old retiring board, and he with six others was returned to office by the minority stockholders. Having the books of the corporation in this city and being virtually in control, they stood pat and refused to surrender to the majority men when the latter came here to take possession. An injunction suit was begun, and yesterday the matter was up before Judge Bordwell, when the temporary restraining order was denied.

MINING COMPANY. The West Coast Company has incorporated with a capital stock of $50,000, of which $200 has been subscribed. The directors are: C. S. Benton, M. F. Moore, J. Jacques, O. McWain and W. R. Hervey, all of Los Angeles.

REAL ESTATE. The M. Friedman Realty Company has incorporated with a capital stock of $100,000, of which $200 has been subscribed. The directors are: M. Friedman, R. L. Kaiser and Cella F. Kaiser, all of this city.

MALADY RETURNED. Mrs. Elizabeth J. Fay of Coleridge was yesterday committed to the State Hospital at Patton by Judge Bordwell. About eight years ago Mrs. Fay was sent to the hospital suffering from puerperal mania, but in six months was released as cured. Since then she has been in very indifferent health and has acted so oddly at times, that her examination became a necessity. Recently she had a violent spell, when she chased her husband with an ax.

NEW SANATORIUMS. The Loma Linda Sanatorium has incorporated with the following trustees: G. W. Reaser, J. A. Burden, J. R. Leads, W. S. S. Merrill, E. S. Ballenger, Adolf Rueff and O. F. Conway, all of Los Angeles. The Glendale Sanatorium has also incorporated without capital stock. The trustees are: Dr. A. W. Simpson, C. F. Marvin, W. Ray Simpson, E. S. Merrill, J. R. Leads, W. S. S. Merrill and J. A. Burden, all of Los Angeles.

HERR REICHSTEINER TESTIFIES AGAINST "CHIROPRACTICS."

Other Naturopathic Doctors Rally to the Defense of Dr. Storey and Will Carry Case to Court of Last Resort—Hire Lawyer by the Year, Messenger Whips His Best Girl.

A pallid wreck of skin and bones that once had been John Reichsteiner, was taken into court on a stretcher yesterday to testify to the extreme strenuousness of Dr. Storey's "chiropractic" cures.

They put his stretcher bed across two tables in the courtroom, and the lawyers and the jurors gathered around the man figure outlined in the blankets, as people do around a deathbed on the stage. The man who had moved wearily in and out of the bedclothes were as frail and attenuated as those of a little child, but his voice was strong enough when he told how Dr. Storey hoisted him up in tickles and clumped him in the neck and paralyzed him.

His story already has been told twenty times. The most interesting feature now is the way the other "naturopathic" doctors have rallied to Dr. Storey's defense. It affects them all, as he is charged with practicing without a regular license.

A whole row of physicians of this school stork glowering at the head of John Reichsteiner's bed, with their attorney, Grant R. Bennett, Esq., whom they employ by the year. They rather hope that this case will go against Storey, they say, the law intend to carry the issue to the Supreme Court of the United States, if necessary, to give their profession a standing.

In the case, they deny that Reichsteiner was abused as he claims, their contention being that the injuries from which he is now in danger of death he got by falling off a bridge.

In any event, this is probably the first case that Justice Rose ever tried perched on top of a green baize table at the foot of a bed, taking the testimony of a man in his "nightg."

The testimony for the prosecution consisted of the story of Reichsteiner, and that of several physicians who treated him after he was taken to the County Hospital. It is feared, to die.

Crawford SHOES

YOU probably have tried many different makes of shoes. We are pretty sure, however, that when you came to buy The Crawford your experimenting in other directions immediately ceased.

This is our experience every time. When a customer once buys the Crawford Shoe of us we know that he will continue to be our customer for all future time.

We know there are many reasons why Crawford Shoes are worn universally by men with discriminating taste. Some of the reasons that we might mention are: You get the same style, comfort, and wear as you would if you bought a made-to-measure boot, and you save the difference in price.

Every dealer knows the Cubanola by his price list. But more than one well-trained and well-known cigar expert has called it 10 cents straight and staked his reputation on it. It would have to be sold for 10 cents straight if the Cubanola quality of leaf were made into cigars in lots of a few thousand in the usual way.

CUBANOLA

CIGAR—5c.

Every process is under one control from seed to smolder; every leaf of the fragrant Havana filler is grown especially for Cubanola cigars; all the selected leaf from each plantation is ripened, graded and blended in one lot, and brought to perfection by all the advantages of the American Cigar Company's system. —It makes a cigar that can be smoked with less satisfaction by any smoker of 10-cent cigars who would more for 10-cent quality than for 10-cent price-tag.

Cubanola Cigars are delivered to the dealer in perfect condition, direct from the humidors; every box separately sealed in a dust-tight, weather-proof, paraffine wrapper. The Triangle A on the Cubanola box stands for perfect cigars. It is a merit-mark that means science, system and cleanliness in every process, and better cigars for less money.

place a meter free of charge in one place and to charge for installation in another?

Answer—Meters are being installed systematically by blocks without charge. Special installation entails extra expense, but when the systematic metering reaches the place of special installation the fee collected is returned to the user.

Answer—In 1901, when no meters were used, the consumption of water was 300 gallons per capita. Since the installation of meters it has been reduced to 145 gallons.

If the inquiring second warders will take the trouble to read the annual report of the Water Board, which is printed, they will know all about meters and their rates.

TOTEM BAKERS MEET TARTAR.

Buggy of Bulldozing Boycotters is Smashed.

Agitators Trying to Wreck Small Open Shop.

Beaten Metal Workers Quail Under Police Eye.

A pair of union-labor thugs and boycotters went up against the real thing yesterday. Out in a buggy, trying to place a boycott on the product of the Buffalo Baking Company, No. 223 Avery street, they pestered F. L. Hart, one of the members of the company, to such an extent that he turned his wagon into their conveyance and smashed it; result, one wrecked carriage for which poor union dupes must pay.

Defeated long ago in their effort to force the totem down the throats of the bakers in Los Angeles, the business agents of the Bakers' Union have turned their attention to the smaller fry, hoping to bluff the proprietors of the lesser shops into closing their doors against independent workmen.

The Buffalo Baking Company, which employs several men and the proprietors of which, P. L. Gardner and Mr. Hart, themselves work at the bench, refused to give the walking delegates any satisfaction, for the very simple reason that the shop makes a specialty of a salt-rising bread that none of the union sons of rest are able to duplicate. Another cogent reason is that Gardner, a union man himself, prefers to have sole conduct of the business in which his capital is invested.

The business agents have visited nearly every retail store where the product of the Buffalo bakers is handy, endeavoring to enforce a boycott. The result in a number of cases has been that the agitators have been ordered from the stores they visited.

Hart, without the interference of the boycotters as long as he could, and when they attempted to hold him up on the street to argue, he turned his wagon into their conveyance and spilled the yawpers into the gutter, seriously damaging their buggy.

"My intention is to invest in this business," said Gardner last night, "and I intend to retain control of the shop rather than to turn it over to these lay loafers who are trying to tell me how I shall run it. I will lock the doors before I will consent to bow to their dictation."

"There isn't a union baker in town that can turn out the kind of work I want. I have told them I would hire one of their number any time they will guarantee to do the work properly, but they haven't accepted the offer. This offer is no concession to the union, but conforms with the open-shop idea."

"I have been a member of the Order of Railway Conductors for seventeen years and have no objection to union men as such. I do object to the men and methods that control this lawless gang here. They have threatened to 'take up' my business. If I don't accept their terms, I'd rather bust with my partner I am working fifteen hours a day to make a success of my business and I have no difficulty in obtaining men to work on my terms."

HOWL AGAINST LAW.

UNIONS DESPISE STAR.

A loud howl has gone up from the members of the Sheet Metal Workers' Union who were beaten several weeks ago in a strike at the principal sheet-metal and cornice shops in the city. After driving the employers to seek the protection of the law in guarding their property and employees, the agitators are squirming because at least one of the employers, J. C. Specht of the California Cornice Works, has been empowered to act as a special officer.

So "desperate" have the defeated strikers become that they have threatened a number of non-union men with violence and have announced in loud tones that they would "clean out" the Specht shop.

On their way to and from work, the sheet-metal workers now employed have been subjected to numerous insults from the loafers who gave up good jobs. Villipiths have been hurled at the men; they have been approached on the streets and warned that if they remained at work they would be "cleaned up," and they have been attempted boycotts of contractors who used material from shops under the union ban.

In some cases it has been necessary for the city police to go to the shops at leaving time in the evening to protect independent workmen.

The metal workers' strike has been a thing of the past for several weeks. The employers have stood firmly together against the demands of the "fellow workers" to "unionize" the town, and every shop is working nearly, if not quite, full-handed.

The men struck for a closed shop, 55 instead of 50 cents an hour, and a half-holiday Saturdays with full pay. They had been working fifty-five hours a week and receiving pay for fifty-six, while the prevailing scale of 50 cents an hour is high as compared with the scale of 25 and 35 cents paid in the East.

So attractive are the conditions in Los Angeles to outside workers that 157 applications were received yesterday from mechanics throughout the country, even as distant as Bangor, Me., and Boston, Mass.

Such men as the union as retain employment in the few closed shops in Los Angeles are obliged to pay $1 a day each for the maintenance of the present strike.

That actual conditions have been misrepresented to the misguided followers of the business agents was shown yesterday by a strikers who called at the California Cornice Works and learned that seventeen men were at work. It had been reported that only two or three non-union men were working.

Take every other strike called in Los Angeles, that of the sheet metal workers has resulted only in bringing in efficient workmen to the aid, ready to work at the wages offered and under the prevailing satisfactory conditions.

EVENTS IN LOCAL SOCIETY.

THE German Methodist Episcopal Church at the corner of Olive and Fifth streets presented a beautiful appearance last evening, the occasion being the wedding of Miss Matilda Hollmann and Henry Frederick Hilmer. The marriage was of unusual interest among the German Methodists, as well as other friends of the two families, for Miss Hollmann is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Hollmann of No. 1613 Cherry street, old residents in Los Angeles, and prominent people in the church. Mr. Hilmer comes of a family of ministers of that faith and will soon be sent out to preach by the German Methodist Episcopal conference of California, which will meet in Pasadena in the coming fall. The ceremony which united the interesting young people was conducted by four ministers of the German church, Rev. F. H. Hilmer, Rev. F. H. Hollmann, Rev. W. C. Schnitzler, presiding elder, and Rev. J. W. Schroeder, pastor of the church. Screening the organ and the altar space was a solid bank of palms and ferns and stately plants of all kinds which were lighted with green electric bulbs like the glow of fireflies. The entire scheme of decoration was in green and white with just a touch of pink here and there. The young couple stood during the ceremony upon a white rug, and above them was an arch of smilax starred over with white carnations while from the arch depended a great basket of the same beautiful flowers. Smaller arches of green extended over the two aisles near the front, and ivy festoons showed green against the walls of the church. At the end of each pew reserved for the family and especial guests were placed bunches of white carnations and maidenhair ferns tied with white tulle bows.

With appropriate music, the bride party entered headed by the four ushers, Walter Hollmann, Gilbert Schmidt, Oscar Schmidt, and Irving Hilmer, all relatives of the two families. The groom was attended by his best man, Richard Hilmer and entered at the right, while the bride made her appearance on the left. She was preceded by Miss Lillian Hollmann of Pasadena, who acted as maid of honor. Miss Hollmann was frocked in white chiffon and carried white carnations. A dear little dimpled flower girl of 4 years, Florence Froeschle of St. Louis, a niece of the bride, was a vision in pink. She scattered pink rose petals before the bride. The bride was attired in a gown of soft white crepe de chine, with lace bertha, and hand-made yoke on bodice and skirt. A veil of tulle enveloped the figure of the pretty girl, who is a lilac, blue-eyed corn flower of the Fatherland. The bride's veil was fastened with a crescent of pearls with tiny forget-me-nots, a present of the groom. Her bouquet was a shower of roses.

A reception to relatives and intimate friends was held at the family residence, which was decked with flowers. Dark red carnations reigned in the dining-room, and red ribbon extended from the center to the center of the table, while above the center were three wedding bells in red.

The newly-married couple received congratulations beneath a canopy of smilax and pink carnations, the parlors being in pink and green. Mr. and Mrs. Hilmer left last evening for a short wedding trip. They will be in Los Angeles after their return until Mr. Hilmer is sent to take charge of a church of his own. He has recently graduated from the German Methodist Theological Seminary at Berea, near Cleveland, O.

GODSPEED TO BISHOP CONATY.

Banquet Marks Eve of His Departure for Rome.

Catholic Clergy Assembles to Say Farewell.

Impressive Event in Local History of Church.

With solemn and impressive display, local Catholicism celebrated one of the most important events in its history yesterday afternoon with a banquet in honor of Rt. Rev. Bishop Conaty of the diocese of Monterey and Los Angeles.

Because the loved and honored prelate is about to leave for Rome to perform his Ad Limina, priest and parishioner strove to do him reverence. Gathered in the Red Room of the Angelus Hotel, seventy priests sat at a banquet table presided over by Monsignor Harnett. The affair was exclusively for the clergy, and the address of Bishop Conaty was helpful and inspiring.

Most significant was the fact that the banquet was one of the first large affairs of its kind so served without wine, and the absence of the wine cups was a tribute of respect to the prelate. Bishop Conaty who is a total abstainer.

After the menu, Monsignor Harnett, in a neat address, presented to the guest of honor a well-filled purse. Once every ten years all diocesan bishops of the Catholic Church must visit the Vatican. In accordance with this law of the church, Bishop Conaty will depart Sunday evening to present his report to Pope Pius X.

Seldom has such an occasion for solemnity offered, and the scene at the long banquet table as Rev. J. J. Clifford, pastor of the Church of St. Thomas the Apostle, and one of the youngest priests in the diocese, delivered the address to the Bishop, was one never to be forgotten. Bishop Conaty replied with deep feeling and outlined the history of the church for the past ten years. He spoke of the wonderful progress made and of the large increase in membership among the diocesan churches and predicted a glorious future for the Catholic Church.

Referring to the solemn responsibility resting upon the priesthood, the Bishop said: "The opportunities for work that is successful never were greater, and the parish priest who is faithful to the duties of his office is sure of success."

At length the speaker outlined the great charitable work now being carried on in Los Angeles by the Catholic Church, and in particular called attention to the attitude of the church on the educational question. The closing words impressively spoken in the rich notes of the magnificent voices were: "God be with you till we meet again," and all present knew that the farewell handshake before the parting.

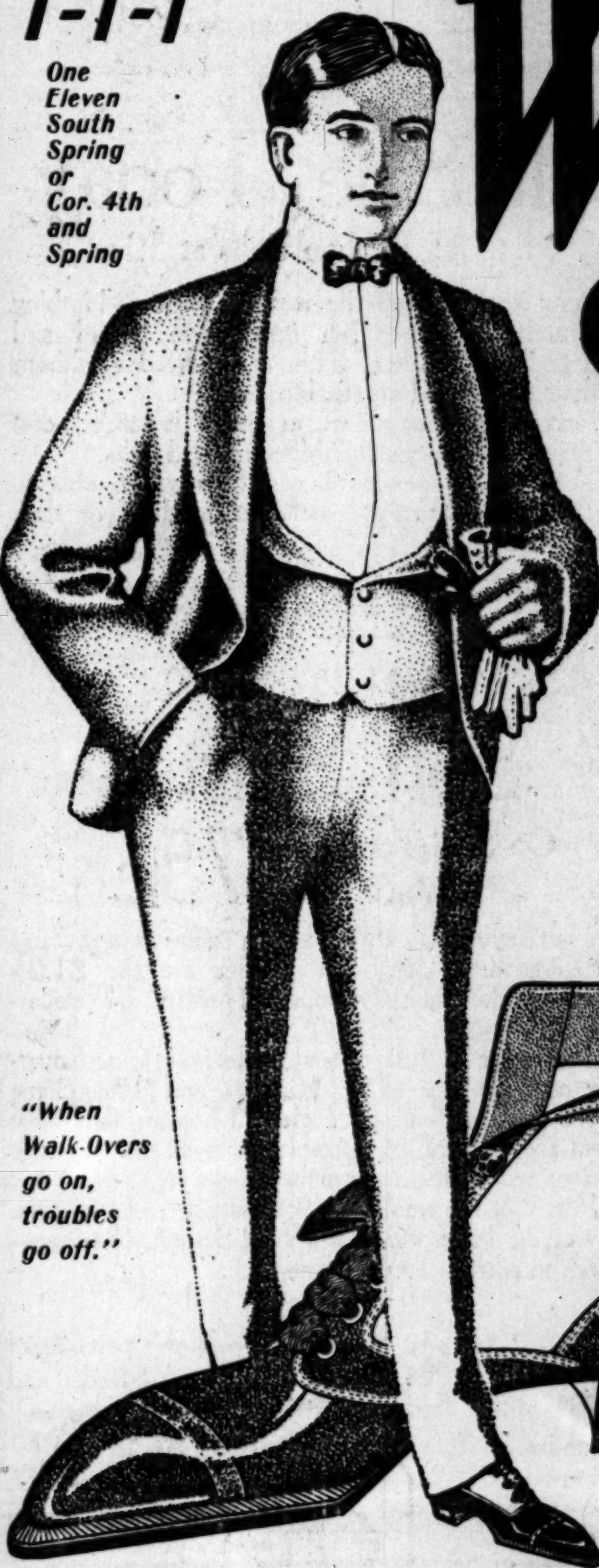

Reports were presented from the visiting diocesan priests, the papers of affiliation from the international headquarters at Paris were formally received and a "Particular Council" was formed. C. C. Desmond was elected president of the council, with power to appoint the other officers.

Until a late hour last night the Bishop was occupied with business pertaining to his long journey, and until Sunday evening every minute will be taken with the vast amount of work before him.

On Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock he will preside at the formal breaking of ground for the new home of the Sisters of Mercy on the ten-acre site at Washington and Concord streets, which when completed will be a combination of the Mercy Home, the Home for the Aged on Boyd street, the Home

EARN SHE'S NOT A WIFE.

STARTLING DISCOVERY MADE IN SAN BERNARDINO.

Los Angeles Woman Finds Her Marriage Has Been Annulled—Says That She Received No Summons and That the Action Should Have Been Brought in Los Angeles County.

SAN BERNARDINO, Aug. 24.—Mrs. Emma Ortega of Los Angeles was here this afternoon making an investigation of the records in the County Clerk's office to ascertain the status of her matrimonial affairs. She makes strange charges of legal irregularities against her former husband's guardian, O. T. Sutton of Los Angeles, and declares that she will have a grave wrong done to her rights.

According to the woman's story she and Claude Ortega were married here August 4, 1897. They had long been enamored of each other, but his guardian, Mr. Sutton, opposed the union, and she eloped. She was Miss Virginia Emma Melius, and both she and her husband were minors.

When the guardian learned of the elopement and marriage he used his influence to separate the young couple, and finally succeeded, and then brought an action in the local courts to annul the marriage on the grounds of his ward's minority. This suit was filed April 30, 1900.

The action of annulment lay on the statute court books for several months and was finally decided by judgment for the plaintiff by default. Mrs. Ortega says she received no summons, and further that all parties to the action are and were at that time residents of Los Angeles, the suit should have been brought there.

After her young husband had reached his majority he went north and the abandoned wife has just learned of his marriage. It was then that she brought about the investigation of the records here, when for the first time she learned that Mrs. Ortega learned that the court had granted an annulment of the ties that had made her and Ortega one.

When the record was shown to her the woman buried her face in her hands and trembled with emotion. With eyes red and swollen with weeping she left the County Clerk's office intending to consult legal advice with a view of setting aside the order rendered in the annulment proceedings, and if possible bring action for damages against Sutton for alienating the affections of her young husband.

OPERAHOUSE TROUBLES.
H. W. Wyatt, lessee of the Wyatt Operahouse at Redlands, which has proved a complete financial failure and involved numerous persons in civil and criminal actions, has sent the keys of the house to J. E. Light, promoter of the playhouse. Wyatt declares that the five-year lease he (Wyatt) has on the place he now cancels, owing to the absence of chairs in the theater, the chairs having been granted and removed by the Western School Supply Company, because Light and the Redlands Improvement Company failed to pay for them.

The keys were rejected. The next step in the complicated game will be a suit against Wyatt for $4000 return of the operahouse, he being in arrears that amount, so allege those who favor the promoters of the playhouse.

B. F. Underwood of the Western School Supply Company, charged with malicious mischief in removing the opera chairs from the building, gave himself up today. He was released under $100 bond to secure his appearance for arraignment Monday, September 4.

THEY ROBBED HIM.
A. M. McLeod, stationary engineer employed by the Santa Fe, last night reported to the officers that he had been robbed of $55 in bills, a gold watch and other valuables by two Mexican helpers whom he had just brought from Tucson, Ariz. He says he was asleep under a tree when they ran back his handbag and that they had disappeared.

IN RACE FOR MIKE.
Harry Anderson and Walter Pike are on a competitive race for an abandoned mining claim in the Gold Mountain mining district. Both men visited the property six weeks ago, and planned to locate it together, but came out for a grudge match. They worked at Long Beach and San Pedro. On Tuesday Pike left without notifying his partner. Anderson learned that he had bought a ticket for Colton, where he has friends, and surmising a trick, Anderson hastened here. Having learned that Pike and a friend had left Colton in a wagon going toward the Cajon, Pike hurried on the "hot" Pike has gone by way of Oro Grande and Anderson by the Arrowhead road. Though his former friend has a day's start, Anderson hopes to beat him to the claim, as Pike probably will take his time, not knowing that Anderson has become suspicious.

LYTLE CRACK RISES.
It is reported that the flow in Lytle Creek has increased 500 inches in the past thirty days. This statement is made on authority of a guard named Perdue, employed to patrol the creek by the City Health Board. This is a most unusual condition of affairs, and while not credited by many people, Perdue emphasizes his statement. It is known that the earthquake of 1930 increased the creek's flow materially, and the suggestion is made that the

(BY TELETYPE TO THE TIMES.)

REDLANDS, Aug. 24.—(Exclusive Dispatch.)—The charming Mrs. Isaac Newton Conklin, nee Gladys Gregory, aged 37, and a bride of only a few months, single-handed and unarmed, except with a horse whip, captured and delivered to the officers this afternoon a burly tramp whom she charged with stealing her purse.

The Conklins live on a ranch out in the Laguna district. Returning from a drive, Mrs. Conklin hitched the horse near the road and went into the house, leaving a small hand bag containing her purse, with $15 in it, on the seat.

Glancing out she saw a man at the curb, who, when she called to him, started up the road. Getting into the buggy, Mrs. Conklin pursued and charged him with the theft. This the man denied, turning out his pockets in proof of innocence. Nonplussed, Mrs. Conklin started back to the house, recent earthquakes have probably had the same effect.

HECHTS TO WED AGAIN.
Louie Hecht and his bride, nee Myrtle Bailey, who eloped to Long Beach and were married there Monday by the City Recorder, will be married here September 2 at the home of the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Hecht. The father states that the ceremony is to be elaborate, and that afterward he will give the bride company such a bank check as will make their eyes dizzy. The second marriage is to be performed under the Jewish rites, to which sect the Hechts belong. The pretty little bride will renounce her belief in the faith of her fathers and acknowledge the Hebrew teachings.

BUYS HER OLD HOME.
Mrs. M. J. Bemis yesterday bought the Dexter Field home place, consisting of twenty-two acres, at the junction of Mount Vernon and Base Line, partly improved, for a stated price of $20,000. Twenty-one years ago her brother-in-law, Charles Bemis, now deceased, sold the ranch to Field, and led by a romantic desire to live there once again, Mrs. Bemis has made the purchase.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.—P.M.)
SAN BERNARDINO, Aug. 24.—As a result of the investigation of the Horseshoe Bend wreck on the Santa Fe, Engineer Ellis of the extra freight which crashed into the work train and Conductor R. E. Baldwin and Engineer J. F. McFarland of the work train have been discharged. The bulletin was posted in this city today.

It was shown that Engineer Ellis ran past the flagman of the work train instead of picking him up. The crew of the work train are held to have erred in backing their train when knowing that an extra freight was due. It was while the work train was backing that the collision occurred.

REDLANDS.

CHINK PLAYS BLIND POKER.

REDLANDS, Aug. 24.—A combined raid on the stores and homes of Wong Tung, a resident of Chinatown, was made yesterday by Constable Rivera and Officer Smith. About eight dozen bottles of beer were secured. The house had been searched and the visit seemed to have been fruitless. When a car of Highland grapefruit was sold in Boston for $2100, or an average of $5.46 per box. The fruit was grown on the Patee & Nye ranch, on Base Line, and brought the growers a net profit of $1500. This, it is claimed, is the highest price for a full car of grapefruit ever recorded; only a few days before a car sold for $1500.

TOP NOTCH GRAPEFRUIT.

As a citrus-growing center Highland is making a record this season, but the cap sheet was added yesterday, when a car of Highland grapefruit was sold in Boston for $2100, or an average of $5.46 per box. The fruit was grown on the Patee & Nye ranch, on Base Line, and brought the growers a net profit of $1500. This, it is claimed, is the highest price for a full car of grapefruit ever recorded; only a few days before a car sold for $1500.

RUDOLPH DISCHARGED.

Investigation into the case of August Rudolph, who was arrested at the Settlemens Wednesday on a charge of embezzlement, showed that the affair was the result of a personal spite, and the prisoner was not arraigned. The case was dropped.

SANTA ANA.

BAD FALL AT NEWPORT.

SANTA ANA, Aug. 24.—James Kermode, an employee of the Newport Hotel, fell from the wharf at Newport Beach last night and sustained a serious injury. Kermode was walking out on the wharf to watch the excursionists from Catalina disembark from the steamer, but in the glare of the headlights of the engine did not notice where he was going. He is nearly twenty-five feet to the water below, and the fall broke the collar bone and inflicted internal injuries of a more or less serious nature. Kermode's tumble was witnessed by a woman, who summoned assistance. The man was taken to the hotel, where his injuries were treated by Dr. Clark of Fullerton.

AFTER ALLEGED TRESPASSERS.

Constable Smithwick went to Capitran today to arrest Eduardo, Daniel and Juan Manriquez on charges of criminal trespass. This is alleged that the men have taken possession of land belonging to W. S. Hargrave, now in England, and are holding it against the leasing of Perry Edwards. There was a civil suit over the land a few years ago, when Daniel and Manriquez were dispossessed and the title vested in Hargrave.

ORANGE COUNTY BRIEFS.

Marriage licenses were issued here today to C. B. West, aged 37, and Alice C. Speck, aged 35, both residents of Los Angeles; and to Joseph T. Hall, aged 34, and Elizabeth McQuaid, aged 23, both residents of Fullerton.

Officers received complaint today from Orange that Luther T. Earls, who is out of the Hutton insane asylum on parole, was again violently insane. He will be returned to the institution. Earls has been twice committed for insanity. His mania is such that he imagines he is possessed of great wealth, and that he should have a dozen steam laundries in Orange, and this time he wants to start a factory for the manufacture of ammunition and arms.

CANTA BARBARA.

TEST FOR AUTO LAW.

(SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE OF THE TIMES)
SANTA BARBARA, Aug. 24.—R. Gano, a chauffeur of Deming Garza, one of the wealthy residents of Montecito and one of the most enthusiastic automobilists of this vicinity, was fined $25 in Police Justice's court Tuesday and as a result the city's rights to regulate street traffic will be settled in higher tribunals of the law. It was claimed by the city that Gano had violated the automobile law passed by the Legislature at its last session makes the speed ordinance of this and other cities ineffective.

SAVES FROM DROWNING.

F. M. Cameron, a young man from Hanford, was rescued from drowning in the ocean Tuesday morning by his friend, A. G. Kahn of Little Rock. A large party of young people, mostly ladies, from the Potter hotel went down to the beach late in the morning for a plunge in the ocean. Among them were Mr. Kahn and Mr. Cameron. The latter had been playing tennis and was overheated by his exertions in the game. He was a good swimmer, but the sudden change of temperature seemed to be a severe shock to his system. He swam out to the diving raft and without a rest, he swam back to the steps, but his strength gave out before he could reach his destination. He was rescued by his friend, Mr. Kahn, who reached him before he could go down again, and helped him to the steps.

"Do you know," said the hostess waiter at one of the Kansas City hotels recently, "that an experienced waiter can usually tell whether a diner is wealthy or not by the way he handles his meal check? If a man carelessly pitches out his money for the waiter to take the bill, without looking over his check we know the chances are he isn't wealthy. He is indulging in a luxury and fears he might be laughed at if he examined the check. The man who has plenty of money examines his check closely as a rule. If he finds an item which he thinks is wrong he tells the waiter about it. It probably isn't, but he is sure that he has made him rich. He is laughed at? Well, I guess not. Really, the waiters admire him for his carelessness and the result is they are particularly particular about how he is charged."—(Kansas City Times.)

Shrilly insistent, and publicly advertising her intention of going home, whether her "lady" companion would or no, Mrs. Kitty Howard of Seventh street and Central avenue attracted to herself much attention and shed unusual enlightenment on the source of her fine rakish at midnight's witching hour before a crowded house in a downtown cafe which enjoys the distinction of being under investigation of the Police Commissioners.

The situation was a critical one. The house held its breath and even the waiters betrayed an unwanted attentiveness.

The bespangled frou frou were borrowed, willowy Mrs. Kitty admitted that herself. All, even the sartorial waist, the slippers with the pronounced rear elevation, like the farwell view of the flats that hang out over Bunker Hill, and the hat decorated with an ostrich ranch, and even the peach-blossom and cherry-blossom complexion—all belonged to her stunning "lady" companion.

If Mrs. Kitty had decided to go home, because the pace was proving too fast for her inexperience, well and good. But she went the clothes stayed right there, and that's all there was to that.

Prevent Headache

As Well As Cure

If subject to headache, take Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills when you feel the first indication of an attack, and you will find that they rarely ever fail to stop further progress.

On the contrary, if the nerves are relieved of this weakening influence, the attacks will be less frequent, and finally disappear altogether.

Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills contain no opium, cocaine, morphine or chloral in any form. They are absolutely harmless if taken as directed, and will have no other effect, except to drive out the pain.

"Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills are all right, and I can recommend them to anyone who is subject to headache, neuralgia, or pain of any kind. NEWS REPORTS FROM TIMES CORRESPONDENTS.

After yesterday morning handed down his decision in the celebrated Reed case, ruling that Mrs. Reed's legal domicile at the time of her death was in Portland, and that the terms of the will, in which more than $100,000 was given for the establishment of an educational institution in Oregon, stood, Mrs. Reed died in Pasadena, and heirs claimed that her will was void under the California statute.

SAYS REED'S STORY. Chief Pinkham, the police judge, little faith in the story to the effect that some one attempted to poison B. Williams, a North Fair Oaks pool room keeper, by doing a bottle of beer that had been left in his house. Officer Copping looked into the matter of the purported visit of a masked man to Williams' home, as related by Williams, seven-year-old daughter, and concluded that the child had probably imagined what she told. According to the police there was no evidence of poison in the bottle. Chief Pinkham surmises that the child may have put some kind of medicine in the bottle when her father's absence and while he found that its taste was peculiar, invented the tale to shield herself.

DIDN'T GET IT ALL. Charles Smith, treasurer of the local lodge of Red Men, is a safe depository for the funds that may be entrusted to his care for the carrying of a trust-deposit box with him all the time. It saved him last night, but now that he has been robbed, he is not so sure that his next time he will be so lucky. Smith was next time he was on the way, and with assistance got the emergency hose on the pier and soon extinguished the fire.
